

Memo to Ambulatory Clinics and Family Physicians
Online Booking Available for Colchester East Hants Health Centre Blood Collection and
Woodlawn Blood Collection

July 21, 2020

The online appointment booking for Colchester East Hants Health Centre and Woodlawn Blood Collection is available again as of Tuesday July 21st. Patients can access online booking on the Nova Scotia Health website at <http://www.nshealth.ca/blood-collection> or a direct link at <https://booking.nshealth.ca> . Patients can schedule, reschedule or cancel their own appointments at these locations.

Due to impacts related to the COVID-19 pandemic, a walk in blood collection service can no longer be supported. We thank you your cooperation and patience while we continue to implement changes to address the issues and make improvements in the appointment booking service.
