

Translating Research Into Care

Nova Scotia's Healthcare Improvement Research Program

TRIC grants aim to translate clinical science into improved delivery of services and patient care. Researchers are encouraged to consider co-leading applications with administrators in health centres outside Central Zone.

SUPPORTS:

FUNDED BY:

SPRING 2019 WORKSHOPS

Tues, March 26th, 12:30pm-1:30pm

Research Boardroom Large Conference Room, IWK Research Services
Goldbloom Pavilion, IWK Health Centre

Wed, April 3rd, 8:30am-9:30am

RMU Room- Room 114, Centre for Clinical Research
5790 University Avenue, Halifax

Wed, April 24th, 12:00pm-1:00pm

RMU Room- Room 114, Centre for Clinical Research
5790 University Avenue, Halifax

Register: <http://NSHAInnovation.eventbrite.com>

NEW—Applicants to the QEII/NSHA/IWK TRIC program are asked to pre-register their project idea at least 4 weeks before the TRIC deadline (Nov 1 and May 1) and are urged to attend a TRIC workshop.

Contact:

Paula Steeves(QEII/NSHA) 902-473-7564
paula.steeves@nshealth.ca

Sandy Berry (IWK) 902-470-7548
sandy.berry@iwk.nshealth.ca